THE FLAG THAT MAKES US ONE

By Frederick Henry Sykes

Flag renowned in ancient story,
Flag that valor won and holds;
Truth and justice wreath its glory,
Freedom dwells beneath its folds.

Ref. Marching millions, bear it proudly;
 Might with right, the Flag leads on;
 States United, chant it loudly,
 'Tis the Flag that makes us one.

Freedom spreads on vaster pinions
'Neath the heaven of its stars;
Peace extends her broad dominions,
Guarded by its crimson bars.

Ref.

Forth it goes 'mid war's commotion—
Star of battle o'er the brave;
Flag of our supreme devotion,
We can die, but it shall wave.

Ref.

Sons of those who built the nation,
Brothers come from all the world,
Raise one song of jubilation,
Glory to the Flag unfurled!
